President's Report

I hope everyone enjoyed a great holiday season.

Congratulations to Larry Yenter, Joe Maschke, and Ben Parsons, our new directors elected at our December meeting. Their addition to the Executive Committee is instrumental in helping guide the future of our club. Sue and I thank you for your vote to serve another term as treasurer and president.

Thank you to the Rhinelander Marketing and Tourism Committee for a grant of $400. This will help fund a new chain saw and brush cutter/string trimmer.

Many of our members gathered together at our map sponsor "the Dinky Diner" in downtown Rhinelander last month for breakfast. The food and conversation was outstanding! The next winter gathering will be at The Town Pump on Wednesday, January 14 at 12 noon. We hope you can join us!

Reg

IF IT WEREN'T FOR BAD LUCK—THEY WOULD HAVE NO LUCK AT ALL

Jay and Patti Kempinger have regained their confidence back that their John Deere UTV is healthy again and no longer puking anti-freeze on their garage floor. What could possibly deflate their spirit again? Here it is. While out following others on a nice afternoon trail ride, they happened to be the ones to run over this wooden nugget. It's amazing how it could kick up and penetrate the thick rubber wall of the UTV tire. The tire has been replaced and Jay, Patti and JD are happy again.

Kindness for the Community

Here is the second pic of items that were taken to Ripco. Eleven blankets and one toy.

Total our very generous club donated was 33 blankets and 22 toys! Our club is amazing.

Thanks for your donations!
